

Barny Barnicott

Producer/Mixer

Since his success with The Enemy's debut No. 1 album 'We'll Live and Die in these Towns', Barny has gained a reputation as one of the UK's leading Mixers and Producers collaborating with artists from Elastica to the Sunshine Underground. This diverse catalogue has seen Barny develop a long-standing relationship with Jim Abbiss, mixing records for him such as Arctic Monkeys' debut 'Whatever People Say I Am, That's What I'm Not' and The Temper Trap's 'Confessions', all of which have been received to great international acclaim.
