

Hannah Robinson

Songwriter (Topline / Melody) / Singer

British songwriter and singer, Hannah Robinson began her career as a vocalist, working internationally, and has since become one of the UK's most significant, in-demand top-line writers. Collaborations include producers such as Richard X, Liam Howe and Jim Elliot on some of her most successful co-writes, such as Rachel Steven's No.2 hit 'Some Girls', Ladyhawke's 'My Delirium' and Annie's 'Chewing Gum', establishing Hannah as an 'A' list writer on the global pop stage.
