

Will Hicks

Producer/Songwriter/Mixer

Will Hicks began professional life as a recording engineer, working with Elton John, Lily Allen and producer Greg Kurstin before transitioning into production. Will has now become one of the UK's most accomplished record producers, writers and mixers, whose work has garnered more than 4 billion streams globally. Working extensively with Ed Sheeran, career highlights include topping the US Billboard Hot 100 and 200 and UK's number 1 spots on both singles and album charts, a Grammy win for Best Pop Vocal Album (production) and a nomination for Record of the Year (engineering). Will has also collaborated with a diverse range of artists including Beyonce, Bastille, Anne Marie, Maverick Sabre, James Hersey and Kawala.
