

Hannah Robinson

Songwriter (Topline / Melody) / Singer

British songwriter and singer Hannah Robinson began her career as a vocalist working internationally, and has since become one of the UK's most significant, in-demand topline writers. Collaborations include producers Richard X, Liam Howe, and Jim Elliot on some of her most successful co-writes, including Rachel Stevens's No. 2 hit 'Some Girls', Ladyhawke's 'My Delirium', and Annie's 'Chewing Gum', establishing Hannah as an 'A' list writer on the global pop stage.
